

Stars & Soccer Greats to Compete at Rose Bowl in July 21 Game Preceding Chelsea vs. Inter Milan

1994 Men's World Cup Players and 1999 Women's World Cup Champions To Face Off Against Hollywood United Football Club in Pro/Celebrity Scrum

PASADENA, Calif., June 15 /PRNewswire/ -- Superman, a vampire, an FBI unit leader, some metal and punk rockers... sounds like a pretty good team, right? While diehard soccer fans will flock to the Rose Bowl on July 21 to see the clash of two global titans, Chelsea FC vs. Inter Milan, Hollywood United Football Club will mount its own challenge two hours prior, against members of men's and women's past international, and World Cup (1994 FIFA World Cup; 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup) teams that may give the Hollywood squad a run for its residuals.

Founded in the '80s by British expats in music, TV and film, Hollywood United has since been joined by former soccer pros worldwide. Competing July 21, beginning at 6:00 p.m., will be such film and TV personalities as Brandon Routh (Superman Returns), Anthony La Paglia ("Without a Trace"), Gilles Marini ("Dancing with the Stars"), Chris Harrison ("The Bachelor"), Josh Hutcherson (Bridge to Terabithia), Donal Logue ("Grounded for Life"), Stephen Moyer ("True Blood"), Jimmy Jean Louis ("Heroes") and Jason Barry (Titanic). Musicians will include Steve Jones (Sex Pistols), Billy Duffy (The Cult), Christian Olde Wobers (Fear Factory) and Coyle Girelli (Your Vegas). The Hollywood United team will also include former soccer pros Frank Leboeuf (Chelsea FC, 1998 World Cup Champion, 2002 World Cup) and Richard Gough (Glasgow Rangers, Scottish National team captain), along with retail maven Tom Atencio (owner of Affliction Clothing).

The main Chelsea FC vs. Inter Milan match, which begins at 8:00 p.m., may be the most anticipated soccer match on American soil since the 1994 World Cup. The game culminates four days of festival activities (July 18-20, 7 a.m.-3 p.m.), a 7v7 Tournament (U10, 12, 14 & 16) Youth, Men's Open/ Women's Open co-ed division (July 18-21, 7 a.m.-7 p.m.) and a Game Day Fan Fest with a beer & wine garden, World Food Expo and music (July 21, beginning at noon).

Net proceeds from the July 21 event will benefit Los Angeles Futbol Club, one of America's largest and most prominent club soccer organizations, which recently partnered with Chelsea to become LAFC Chelsea. For more information about the event, please visit www.lafcsoccer.com.
